

Dear JOBANJIT SINGH

We have issued you a Bridging C visa while your Student (subclass 500) application is being processed.

Important information on travel to Australia**

The Australian Government has implemented a number of arrangements in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. These include:

- Travel ban for all non-residents and non-Australian citizens coming to Australia. Exemptions from this travel ban are in place for Australian citizens, permanent residents and their immediate family members (spouses, dependent children and legal guardians).
- All travellers to Australia are required to self-isolate for a specified period.

The Department of Home Affairs website has further information including exemptions: covid19.homeaffairs.gov.au

Application status

New Student (subclass 500) application:	Received
Bridging C visa:	Active

Bridging C visa conditions

8101 - No work

An explanation of each condition of this Bridging C visa is included below.

You can check the conditions of your Bridging visa at any time by using the Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) service. The four-digit number presented next to each condition above is used in VEVO to identify each condition that applies to this Bridging C visa.

Planning to travel?

This Bridging visa will end if you leave Australia.

When does my Bridging visa end?

If your application is granted, your Bridging visa will end and your new visa will become active.

If your application is invalid, refused, withdrawn or has an outcome from a merits review decision, your Bridging visa will end after a specified period of time. To understand more about when a bridging visa ends, refer to www.homeaffairs.gov.au/bridging-visas
