

Dear Advitya CHOPRA

We have issued you a Bridging A visa while your Student (subclass 500) application is being processed.

Important information on travel to Australia**

The Australian Government has implemented a number of arrangements in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. These include:

- Travel restrictions for all non-citizens wishing to travel to Australia. There are very limited individual exemptions to the travel restrictions.
- Automatic exemptions to the travel restrictions are in place for Australia citizens, permanent residents of Australia, New Zealand citizens usually resident in Australia, or an immediate family member of such a person. An immediate family member is a spouse, de facto partner, dependent child, or legal guardian.
- Australia has quarantine arrangements in place. Travellers entering Australia will need to comply with state and territory quarantine requirements.

Travelling to Australia at this time is permitted in very limited circumstances.

More information about what you need to do before you travel to Australia is available on our website covid19.homeaffairs.gov.au/before-i-travel

Application status

New Student (subclass 500) application:	Received
Current Temporary Graduate visa:	Active
Bridging A visa:	Not active

When will my Bridging visa become active?

This Bridging A visa will only become active if your current visa ends before your new application has been finalised. This Bridging visa allows you to stay lawfully in Australia while your Student (subclass 500) application is being processed.

Planning to travel?

This Bridging visa will end if you leave Australia.

If you plan to leave Australia while on a Bridging visa, you will need to apply for a Bridging visa B (BVB): www.homeaffairs.gov.au/BVB

You will need to be granted a Bridging visa B before you depart Australia. A Bridging visa B allows you to leave and return to Australia while your Student (subclass 500) application is being processed.

When does my Bridging visa end?

If your application is granted, your Bridging visa will end and your new visa will become active.

If your application is invalid, refused, withdrawn or has an outcome from a merits review decision, your Bridging visa will end after a specified period of time. To understand more about when a bridging visa ends, refer to www.homeaffairs.gov.au/bridging-visas
