

Dear Shikher CHHABRA

We have granted you a Student (subclass 500) visa on 10 June 2021.

Important information on travel to Australia**

The Australian Government has implemented a number of arrangements in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. These include:

- Travel restrictions for all non-citizens wishing to travel to Australia. There are very limited individual exemptions to the travel restrictions.
- Automatic exemptions to the travel restrictions are in place for Australia citizens, permanent residents of Australia, New Zealand citizens usually resident in Australia, or an immediate family member of such a person. An immediate family member is a spouse, de facto partner, dependent child, or legal guardian.
- Australia has quarantine arrangements in place. Travellers entering Australia will need to comply with state and territory quarantine requirements.

Travelling to Australia at this time is permitted in very limited circumstances.

Australian working conditions

Workplace rights

Pay rates and workplace conditions are set by Australian law. All people working in Australia, including those from overseas, have rights and protections at work. These cannot be taken away by contracts or agreements.

If you have questions about your pay and conditions while in Australia, you can contact the Fair Work Ombudsman for free information, resources and advice.

Visit www.fairwork.gov.au for information for visa holders and international students. This includes information in 41 languages.

You can also contact the Fair Work Ombudsman by phone within Australia on 13 13 94 (Translating and Interpreting Service 13 14 50).

Pay

Your minimum pay rate can come from an award, enterprise agreement or other registered agreement, or the national minimum wage. Employees have to be paid the right pay rate for all hours they work including training, team meetings, opening and closing the business and doing a trial shift.

National minimum wage

Certain employees may have different pay entitlements depending on whether they have a reduced work capacity because of disability, if they are under the age of 21 or if they are an apprentice or trainee. You can calculate your correct pay and entitlements using the Pay and Conditions Tool at www.fairwork.gov.au/pay

Polio vaccinations

On 5 May 2014, the World Health Organization (WHO) Director General declared the international spread of wild type polio virus to be a Public Health Emergency of International Concern under the International Health Regulations (IHR).

Since 5 May 2014, if you have spent 28 days or more in one or any combination of countries listed under the Endemic and Outbreak categories on the Global Polio Eradication Initiative website, we encourage you to have a polio vaccination before departing for Australia. Having the vaccination will also assist in eradicating the spread of polio.

More information and a link to the list of countries is available on our website immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health/threats-to-public-health#content-index-3

To obtain maximum benefit in assisting with the eradication of the spread of polio, it is advisable to have the vaccination at least four weeks before your travel.
